

[White Box]

RESEARCH & EXPLORATIONS

In an effort to promote experiential opportunities for learning, innovation and student-business ownership, The Riata Center for Entrepreneurship has launched White Box, an initiative which will provide OSU students a public venue in which they will be able to test, grow and operate their unique startups at the Oklahoma State University Student Union.

Made possible through innovation and collaboration:

Riata Center for Entrepreneurship
School of Architecture

Department of Art, Graphic Design, & Art History
Oklahoma State University Student Union
